

Table of Content

Introduction	7
Nuno Miguel Proença
The “Lusiads Effect”: a Tension Towards Imperialism or Cosmopolitanism?	13
Pedro António Monteiro Franco
The Ambiguous Cosmopolitanism of Joseph Conrad. A Reading of Heart of Darkness	31
Marco Bucaioni
How Do you Say “Afropolitan” in Portuguese? African Literatures, Black-Portuguese Literature and Afropolitanism	41
Sara Fernandes
Virginia Woolf & the Cosmopolitan Self	51
Soraya Nour Sckell
The Invention of the Self and of the Cosmos: Cosmology and Poetics of the Self in the Work of Paulo Cardoso	65
Márcio Suzuki
What Does it Mean to be Cosmopolitan? A Note on the History of the Concept ..	77
Helena Inácio
The Global Constitutionalization Undertaken by the United Nations	87
Lasha Kharazi
Univocity and Cosmopolitanism	103
Pedro António Monteiro Franco
Tradition and Cosmopolitanism in Alasdair MacIntyre and Kwame Anthony Appiah	113
Marco Russo
A Broad-Minded Way of Thinking. Cosmological Perspectives in Kantian Cosmopolitanism	121
Biographies	135

DOI <https://doi.org/10.3790/978-3-428-58804-6.2024.377875>

Generated at 3.16.143.199 on 2025-03-29 16:47:49

FOR PRIVATE USE ONLY | AUSSCHLIESSLICH ZUM PRIVATEN GEBRAUCH