

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial	9
Christhardt Henschel / Ulrich Knufinke / Ruth Leiserowitz / Kamila Lenartowicz / Neele Menter / Zuzanna Światowy
Introduction	11
I. GENERAL AND PERSONAL APPROACHES
Eleonora Bergman
Is there any good future for synagogue buildings in Poland?	27
Eugeny Kotlyar
Synagogues in the age of Ukraine's independence: The rediscovery and renovation of the architectural heritage	33
Piotr Puchta
Preservation of material Jewish heritage in Poland – challenges and prospects, as seen from the position of the Foundation for the Preservation of Jewish Heritage in Poland (FODŻ)	53
Ruth Ellen Gruber
From dark tourism to destination culture: The evolution of Jewish heritage travel	63
II. THE USE AND RE-USE OF SYNAGOGUES AND THEIR OBJECTS 1945–1990
Kinga Migalska
The meaning of objects: Judaic exhibitions organized at synagogues in Poland (1945–1989)	87

Christhardt Henschel

- Diplomacy through synagogues? Jewish sites and state politics in communist Poland 103

Valeria Rainoldi

- Italian synagogues in Israel: The case of Conegliano,
'from death to life' 129

Júlia Csejdy

- Approaches by the scientific community and decision makers toward Jewish built heritage between 1945 and 1989 in Hungary: A case study of two Orthodox synagogues in Mád and Tállya 143

Samuel D. Gruber

- The rediscovery of Jewish built heritage
in Central and Eastern Europe, 1988–2006:
A personal perspective 163

III. STUDIES THROUGH THE LOCAL LENS

Anna Klimovich / Alena Kuzmiankova /Olga Pavlova-Sokolova

- Acceptance of heritage or cultural appropriation?
The source of Jewish heritage safety and development in Belarusian small cities 177

Andrea Corsale

- Experiences and prospects of the conservation and promotion of Jewish heritage in Oradea and Timișoara, western Romania 187

Michal Brandl / Anita Fiket

- Synagogues in Croatia after World War II:
Rijeka as a case study 197

Melinda Harlov-Csortán

- Synagogues in the contemporary Hungarian countryside 209

Zuzanna Światowy

- Restoring memory or searching for a new identity?
The synagogue and the Jewish community of Dzierżoniów (Reichenbach im Eulengebirge) 221

Aleksandra Paradowska

- Synagogues in the memory of contemporary local communities in the Wielkopolska region 239

IV. INDIVIDUAL OBJECTS AND HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES: TRANSFORMATION PERIODS AND THE COMPETITION OF CONCEPTS

Arno Pařík

- The reconstruction of the Great Synagogue
of Boskovice and its painted decoration 253

Renata Hanynets

- Jankel Jancer Shul Synagogue – preserving
Jewish heritage and restoring its memory in Lviv 263

Magdalena Abraham-Diefenbach

- The synagogue in Międzyrzecz: A history of various attempts to protect the monument 277

Kamila Lenartowicz

- The former synagogue in Barczewo as an example of the challenges of rural synagogues 285

Monika Žąsytiene

- The imbalance between ‘our’ and ‘other’ heritage –
the inclusion of Jewish heritage in local identity:
The case of Švėkšna 295

Contributors 304

Index of Persons 312

Index of Locations 317