

List of Authors

Konrad Graczyk is a professor at the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Silesia in Katowice, Deputy Director at the Historical Research Office of the Institute of National Remembrance in Warsaw. He recently published the book: Ein anderes Gericht in Oberschlesien. Sondergericht Kattowitz 1939–1945, Tübingen 2021 and articles: Sondergerichte in den besetzten polnischen Gebieten im Jahr 1939. Eine rechtsgeschichtliche Analyse, “Zeitschrift der Savigny-Stiftung für Rechtsgeschichte. Germanistische Abteilung” 2021, Bd. 138; Pierwszy Sondergericht na ziemiach polskich. Z działalności Sądu Specjalnego w Częstochowie (Sondergericht Tschenstochau) (1939–1945), “Czasopismo Prawno-Historyczne” t. LXXIV, z. 2 (2022); In the shadow of Auschwitz... Jews before the Special Courts of the ‘Third Reich’, “Zeitschrift der Savigny-Stiftung für Rechtsgeschichte. Germanistische Abteilung” 2021, Bd. 140. ORCID: 0000-0002-0991-2036

Ryszard Kaczmarek is a historian, professor at the University of Silesia and Silesian Library in Katowice, researcher of the history of Upper Silesia and Poland in the 19th and 20th centuries. He has published many books, including: Upper Silesia During World War II (2006), Poles in the Wehrmacht (2010), The History of Poland 1914–1989 (2010), Poles in the Kaiser’s Army (2014), and edited the collective work The History of Upper Silesia (2011). ORCID: 0000-0001-9917-063X

Adam Krychowski is a lecturer and tax advisor. Obtained his doctorate in law at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics at the University of Wrocław. Specializes in political and legal doctrines. His research is focused on the legal aspects of Silesian history. ORCID: 0000-0002-8927-4117

Martin Löhnig holds the Chair of Civil Law, German and European Legal History and Canon Law at the University of Regensburg. For more info cf. www.martin-loehnig.de. ORCID: 0000-0002-4616-1905

Anna Muś is an associate professor at the University of Silesia in Katowice. She holds MA in law and PhD in political science and administration. She has published articles and two books on self-determination, minority rights and ethnic policy. Her research has been focused for many years on ethno-regionalist movements in Europe, especially in Upper Silesia. ORCID: 0000-0002-9010-3139

Krzysztof Nowak is a researcher and academic teacher at the Institute of History, University of Silesia in Katowice. He specializes in the history of Middle-Eastern Europe, the history of European borderlands, national relations, national minorities, the history of Polish-Czech-Slovak and Polish-Romanian relations in the 20th century. Author i.a. Między nacjonalizmem a ideą internacjonalizmu. Mniejszość polska w Czechosłowacji 1945–1989 [Between nationalism and the idea of internationalism. The Polish minority in Czechoslovakia 1945–1989], Cieszyn 2012. ORCID: 0000-0001-7574-7481

Kamila Staudigl-Ciechowicz, Postdoc at the University of Vienna (Department of Legal and Constitutional History) and lecturer and research fellow at the University of Regensburg (Chair of Private Law, German and European Legal History and Canon Law). She studied Law (Vienna) and Canon Law (LL.M., Vienna), received her doctorate in Law (Vienna, 2017, thesis on legal history of the Viennese University) and is currently writing her habilitation in private law history. She specialises in European legal and constitutional history, with a focus on the 19th and 20th centuries, in particular the interwar period. For more info cf. www.staudigl-ciechowicz.at. ORCID: 0000-0002-7018-535X

Anna Stawarska-Rippel is an Associate Professor (Dr. Habil. Professor at the University of Silesia) at the Faculty of Law and Administration, Institute of Law, University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland. She is an author of scientific publications in Poland, the USA, the UK, and Germany on the evolution of law from a comparative perspective, especially in judiciary and court proceedings, as well as the unification and codification problems, totalitarian system of law (soviet law), and family law. ORCID: 0000-0003-3252-9171

Donata Zehner studied law at the University of Passau. Afterwards she worked as a research assistant at the Chair of Civil Law, German and European Legal History under Prof. Dr. Ulrike Müßig. She passed her legal traineeship (Referendariat) at the higher regional court of Munich and graduated with the Second State Exam in 2018. In 2020 she received her doctorate with a thesis on “Silesian Court History and the French Impact on the Cross Roads of Prussian and Austrian Hegemonies”, honoured with two prizes. In 2021 she passed an additional qualification in private construction law at the Philipps-Universität Marburg. From 2021 to 2023 she worked as post-doctoral candidate at the law faculty of the University of Passau. In 2024 she became an official in the field of private construction law (Bayerische Staatsbauverwaltung). Her research focuses on civil law, sustainability law, canon law and legal history. Besides she studies canon law at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München in order to obtain a licentiate degree.