

Inhalt

I. Hegel in Finnland und Skandinavien

Carl-Göran Heidegren Hegelianism Goes North. Hegel in the Scandinavian Countries	15
Lauri Kallio Thiodolf Rein and the Legacy of Finnish Hegelianism	27
Eerik Lagerspetz/Sari Roman-Lagerspetz Recognition in J. W. Snellman's Philosophy of Law	41

II. Hegel in Russland

Andrey Maidansky Hegel in the Mirrors of Soviet Philosophy: From Love to Hate and Back Again . .	51
Peter Neshitov The Hegelian Spirit of Russian Philosophy	63
Aleksander Timofeev Nikolai Debolskiy als Hegelianer und Kritiker Hegels	67
Victor Kupriyanov Transformation of Hegelian Philosophy in B. N. Chicherin's Metaphysics and Political Philosophy	75
Nataliya Tatarenko Mikhail Lifshitz and Mikhail Ovsyannikov: Reception of Hegel's Aesthetics in Russia	83
Denis Kaidalov Ilyenkov's Interpretation of Hegel's Logic	91
Nino Rodonaia Hegel in Mamardashvilis Philosophie	101

III. Hegel und Marx

Andreas Arndt Beyond Idealism and Materialism: Hegel's Concept of Dialectic and Marx's Criti- que of Hegel's 'Mystifications'	109
Gabriele Schimmenti Logical Prolegomena to Marx's Dissertation	121